

CITY DECLARATION

As was first declared over our nation, we declare today that this land is the Great Southland of the Holy Spirit.

We declare that this city has been blood bought and that every man, woman and child has been purchased at the cross of Calvary.

We thank you that from that place everyone holds the promise of salvation, lordship and eternity.

We declare as with the prophet Jeremiah that our city has a plan and purpose ordained by God, a plan for good and not for evil, a plan that will fill the hearts of each and every person with a hope for the future.

We also declare, as with the prophet Jeremiah peace and prosperity over this great city.

Within this peace and prosperity,

We declare favour over the tourism that would draw people from every corner of the globe, to enjoy the richness of this great region.

We declare favour that would birth creativity upon every sector of society that these resources would be shared with this nation and the nations beyond.

And here today God almighty, we give you thanks for this is our land, our city Newcastle and the greater Hunter region

This is a land of plenty; this is a land of hope.
Today we acknowledge our richest harvest is within her people.

Here today we commit this land and her people to You.

We believe for Your very best to flow in us and through us that You be glorified and Your people be blessed.

In The mighty name of Jesus

Amen and Amen
